WELCOME

FROM THE PROGRAM CHAIR

The American Academy of Maxillofacial Prosthetics would like to invite you to partner with us in marketing your services to our membership and conference guests. The AAMP was founded in 1953 and has held the torch on advancing patient care, research and education of all of those dedicated to this special patient population.

The theme for this year's meeting is THE CHANGING ART AND SCIENCE IN MAXILOFACIAL PROSTHETICS.

Our membership includes leaders and decision makers in the field of 3D Imaging/Printing, Scanning/Prototyping, Virtual Planning, and those dedicated to the care of patients requiring advanced head and neck rehabilitation. While our membership includes a variety of those from the military, education and private practice, they are all based in interest in the very latest technologies that facilitate and improve patient care.

The meeting prospectus describes several opportunities for corporate partnership with the AAMP at the Upcoming 66th Scientific Session in Miami Florida.

By partnering with the AAMP, your company will have conspicuous access to those fellows and guests with name branding and year-round branding opportunities unique to your product offering. By partnering with industry, the AAMP is better able to provide our patients with the very latest technologies, materials and products to facilitate rehabilitation of this very special patient population. Thank you for considering these offerings.

Yours Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Thomas J. Salinas, DDS". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Thomas Salinas, DDS
66th Annual AAMP Program Chair

MEETING INFORMATION

The 66th Annual Meeting of the AAMP will be held at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach, Florida (October 26-29, 2019). The meeting will blend a series of speakers to complement contemporary approaches in treating patients with maxillofacial prosthetics needs. Specifically related to collaborative care of these complex cases.

This 2019 meeting will offer you the opportunity to meet many program directors, educators and decision-makers regarding products and technologies at their respective institutions. Additionally, numerous prosthodontic residents and maxillofacial prosthetic fellows will be in attendance. Our meetings provide an ideal forum to introduce your company and its products to our current leaders of a new class of professionals who will guide the future of our specialties.

We look forward to welcoming your company to the AAMP 2019 meeting in Miami, as we enjoy our time together in the interests of our deserving patients.

ABOUT THE AAMP

HISTORY

The American Academy of Maxillofacial Prosthetics (AAMP) was founded in 1953 by Drs. Aelred C. Fonder, Joseph E. Schaefer and John R. Thompson. The Academy was originally founded as "The National Association for Somato Prosthetics and Rehabilitation" in Chicago by these three leaders. The Academy was officially incorporated in Cook County (Illinois) and received its charter on January 29, 1953.

PROFILE

The AAMP is a not-for-profit corporation and is organized and operated exclusively for purposes specified in Section 501(c)6 of the Internal Revenue Code. This corporation is formed as a general association of professionals engaged or with an interest in the specialty of maxillofacial prosthetic rehabilitation for the purpose of education, research and charitable pursuits and not for pecuniary profit. The membership consists of Fellows, Associate Fellows, Affiliate Fellows, Life Fellows, Life Affiliate Fellow, Allied Health Professionals and Student Members. The corporation exists for the purposes of: patient and professional advocacy, membership development, the promotion of education and research, and to foster and encourage working relations with dental and maxillofacial laboratory technicians and allied health professionals.

MISSION

The AAMP is an association of maxillofacial prosthodontists, dentists and allied health professionals who are engaged in the art and science of maxillofacial prosthetics. Our mission is to accumulate and disseminate knowledge, experience and the promotion of research programs involving methods, techniques and devices used in maxillofacial prosthetics. The AAMP is devoted to the study and practice of methods used to establish esthetics and function of patients with acquired, congenital and developmental defects of the head and neck. Additionally, the AAMP promotes enhancement of the oral health of cancer patients who have received radiation therapy or chemotherapy treatment.

By AAMP:

AAMP reserve the right to cancel, shorten, delay, or otherwise alter or change the Meeting in their discretion. If the entire Meeting is cancelled AAMP's sole obligation is to refund the sponsorship or exhibit fees paid to AAMP for the Meeting by a sponsor or exhibitor. If the Meeting is delayed, shortened or otherwise altered or changed, AAMP may in its discretion refund the sponsorship or exhibit fees paid to AAMP by a sponsor or registrant on a prorated basis, but is under no obligation to do so. Sponsorship and exhibit fees will only be refunded to the person who paid the sponsorship or exhibit fees, by the same method as the original payment (i.e. credit card, check, etc.) and in the case of a credit card only to the same credit card used to pay the sponsorship or exhibit fees. AAMP is not liable for direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary, punitive, or damages of any other kind, regardless of the nature of the cause of action that may be asserted. AAMP is not responsible and shall not pay for costs or losses associated with travel, airfare, lodging, food, transportation, setup, freight, employee wages, contractor compensation or other costs or losses incurred by a sponsor or exhibitor in connection with the Meeting or as a result of the Meeting being cancelled, shortened, delayed, or otherwise altered or changed. Exhibitors and sponsors are solely responsible for such costs and losses and it is recommended that exhibitors and sponsors consider purchasing sufficient insurance to cover such costs and losses. Under no circumstances shall AAMP's liability to any sponsor or exhibitor exceed the sponsorship or exhibit fees paid by the sponsor or exhibitor to AAMP in connection with the Meeting.
