Program Speakers – Judge John Vasquez

Title

Retirement: A Question of Balance

Abstract

This workshop is not your typical discussion on retirement. Sure, financial planning is part of the mix but there are many other considerations to prepare and live a happy, fulfilling retirement. Judge Vasquez brings humor and a realistic approach to retirement that is valuable whether you are currently near retirement or hope to retire down the road.

Biography

A graduate of the University of Texas School of Law, Judge Vasquez was elected chair of the Municipal Judges Section of the State Board of Texas. He has served as special counsel to the state auditor and chief of the Charitable Trusts Section of the state attorney general's office. He served as a municipal judge for nearly 20 years—from 1996-2015. He is himself retired but has kept very active with his work as Volunteer State President for AARP Texas. Since his retirement, he has volunteered for the Institute of Texan Cultures, as member of Joint City/County Commission on Elderly Affairs and as an advisory committee member for the San Antonio Area Foundation. He enjoys speaking about retirement but has a very unique perspective.
